Abstract

The existence of the classic solution of a boundary value problem is proved for a partial differential equation of fourth order with not self-adjoint boundary conditions.