

Abstract

For the problems of optimal control by parabolic equations coefficients the questions of correctness of their statement have been investigated, sufficient conditions for aim functional differentiability have been found, formula for its gradient has been obtained, and necessary condition of optimality has been determined.