

Abstract

The mixed boundary value problem is considered for linear non-divergent parabolic equations of the second order with, generally speaking, discontinuous coefficients satisfying Cordes condition. The one-valued, strongly (almost everywhere) solvability of this problem is proved in the corresponding space Sobolev.