Abstract

In the present paper we obtain sufficient conditions providing solvability of a periodic boundary value problem for a class of second order operator-differential equations. These conditions are expressed only by the properties of coefficients of the given operator-differential equation. Notice that when obtaining main results the estimations of the norms of intermediate derivatives operators are also given.